About

I am a mountain girl who loves the city. I always have a song stuck in my head, a colorful design waiting to be created, and fun content ready to be shared. My creative mind is what wakes me up in the morning and kicks starts my journey to 8 AM daily dance.

Work Highlights

- Utah Hinge Profile – Do you camp, hike or like adventure? You are a perfect match for my Utah Hinge profile.
- Light The World Giving Machines – How do you ensure brand and messaging for a global charity vending machine? My social style guide.
- Go Dash Dot – In the world of designer bags, I created content that hit the target audience right in the face...or the fashion part of their brain.
- Salvaged singles concert - Saved a One Republic concert from cancellation through effective social content and designed pieces that effectively reached singles looking for connections.
